Inclusive Services Career Pathways

Advance Your Career in Community and Social Services

For professionals with experience in Community and Social Services who would like to continue working in the same sector.

The Program

The Inclusive Services Career Pathways (ISCP) program supports individuals with a background in Community and Social Services who wish to continue working in the social services sector.

Program Goals

1. The main goal is to prepare participants for in-demand frontline and administrative roles in the Community and Social Services sector.
2. Get job-ready for non-regulated social and community service roles such as case worker, client service coordinator, intake administrator, housing support staff, youth program staff, addictions worker, youth worker, settlement worker, and more, according to your professional background. Placement included.
